

Andrew Tabner

Emergency Medicine Consultant, Royal Derby Hospital
Honorary Assistant Professor, University of Nottingham

Qualifications:

BMBS, University of Nottingham, UK.
MMedSci, University of Nottingham, UK.
Fellowship of the Royal College of Emergency Medicine, UK.

Scientific Focus:

- Pragmatic emergency medicine trials
- Analgesia in renal colic
- Mixed methods research
- Sepsis
- Pulse oximetry and oxygen management
- Resuscitation in deep sea divers

Key Publications:

Johnson GD, Tabner A, Fakis A, et al. Salbutamol for analgesia in renal colic: a prospective, randomised, placebo-controlled phase II trial. Emergency Medicine Journal 2025;42:378-386.

Graham Johnson, Andrew Tabner, Nicholas Tilbury, Alistair Wesson, Gareth D. Hughes, Rebecca Elder, Philip Bryson. Development of an algorithm to guide management of cardiorespiratory arrest in a diving bell. Resuscitation Plus 2024 19.

Anderson E, Chaplin WJ, Turner C, et al. Experiences and perceptions of acute testicular pain, with a focus on reasons for delayed presentation to hospital: a qualitative evidence synthesis. Emergency Medicine Journal 2025;42:264-270.