

PRESIDENT-ELECT

One year of close collaboration with the current EUSEM President, in preparation for the position of President, which entails the following tasks:

- Strategic direction and overall leadership of the Society to set the direction for Emergency Medicine development in Europe.
- Meeting European EM organisations and allied organisations in Europe. The President-Elect can as any other member of the Board, represent EUSEM in meetings with those organisations.
- Representing EUSEM externally, working to achieve the policy and goals of the society.
- Putting the decisions of the Board into action by taking appropriate internal, external and international measures.
- Coordinating and cooperating with Board members to put the decisions of the Board into action and to achieve the goals of the society.
- The President-Elect will act as liaison person for certain EUSEM committees, sections and working groups in agreement with all Board members.
- Consulting Board members about the work of the society.
- Undertaking the role of as one of the directors of the EUSEM INPO.
- The role will require attendance at meetings of the Board, Council and General Assembly meetings.
- The President-Elect will also attend the annual EUSEM Congress during the term of office.

(Workload: 10 hours per week)